CALL FOR ARTISTS

Tempe Marketplace is passionate about serving as a revolving canvas for local artists to display their creativity on installments located throughout the property and to enhance the experience of every visitor.

We welcome you to submit your photography and visual artwork (which could be reproduced in large scale graphics on-site).

Here are some guidelines to submit your portfolio:

1. Submissions are only accepted in the form of CD.
2. Ensure your work is available and ready to reproduce.
3. Include a bio and artist statement.
4. Include your contact information: Name, Address, Phone, Email, Website (if applicable)

There are three ways you can submit work:

1. Hand deliver portfolio to Guest Services (located below Cadillac Ranch in the District Plaza)
2. Deliver by mail: 2000 E. Rio Salado Pkwy, Suite #1150, Tempe, AZ, 85281
3. Submit via email: events@tempemarketplace.com (please include attached text as a Word document)

ART SUBMISSION DEADLINE IS OCTOBER 17, 2008

TEMPEMARKETPLACE.COM

Tempe Marketplace's first featured artist was Brandon Sullivan, a talented local art photographer, who has lived in the Valley for over 15 years. His photography display was creatively integrated into the center and also incorporated a sense of community identity for the City of Tempe. Brandon Sullivan targeted six general themes to reflect the movement, enthusiasm, wit and quality offered in the public environment of Tempe Marketplace.
